VISUAL & TEACHING ARTIST

Art Peeps, I am including a this copy of the drawing that I worked on during the videos for your reference, I thought you may want to see it without shadows and my hand covering it up. Everyone's version of this (and every) drawing exercise will be unique. My goal is to be a coach through this course, offering a springboard for your art adventure. If you want parallel lines that are vertical or horizontal or slanted differently than mine – thats super! I did what was comfortable for me; you should be making marks that are comfortable for YOU. -Julie
